

short story quiz

Name _____

1. Dramatic irony is when the reader knows the unexpected before the characters.
2. A theme is the universal truth that the author is trying to convey.
3. The protagonist is the central character of the story.
4. A figure of speech where the speaker says less than what she/he feels is understatement.
5. A writing technique used to give the reader clues about upcoming events is called foreshadow.
6. The overall feeling created by characters and setting is called mood.
7. The tone of the story is the author's attitude toward it.
8. style is the characteristic way an author uses language, sentences and imagery.
9. The use of details to describe one thing in terms of another is called imagery.
10. hyperbole is an exaggerated statement usually causing a humorous effect.
11. The time and place of a story is called the setting.
12. Name three conflicts: 1. man vs man 2. man vs. self 3. man vs. nature
13. Limited point of view is with only one person.
14. When communicating information about characters through their speech and actions, we call that characterization.
15. omniscient point of view is all knowing.
16. Label the following plot line.

